Delegation from FES Visits MAS

Tuesday, 12 January 2016, Ramallah. Today officials from Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (FES) visited the Palestine Economic Policy Research Institute (MAS) and were received by Dr. Nabeel Kassis, Director General, and Mrs. Daniela Andreevska, Project Coordinator. The visit by Ms. Ingrid Ross, Resident Director of FES in Palestine, Dr. Beyhan Senturk, and Mr. Omran Al Shroufi, FES Program Manager, came on the occasion of the handover from Mrs. Ross to Dr. Senturk.

Dr. Kassis welcomed the new Resident Director and thanked Ms. Ross for her services and support and wished her well in her future endeavors. He expressed his hopes to further develop the cooperation between the two organizations under the new RD. FES funds some of MAS activities including the monthly Roundtables which discuss topical economic and social issues of priority to Palestinian policy-makers.
