

MAS & Birzeit University Sign a Memorandum of Understanding

Thursday, Jan 22, 2015, Ramallah. The Palestine Economic Policy Research Institute (MAS) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Birzeit University (BZU). The agreement provides the opportunity for undertaking joint research and publication activities, holding joint conferences and roundtables, utilizing library resources, exchanging publications of mutual interest, and providing on-the-job training to a number of Birzeit students at MAS.

The agreement was signed by Dr. Nabeel Kassis, Director General of MAS, and Professor Khalil Hindi, President of BZU. On this occasion, the heads of the two institutions emphasized the importance of this MoU as a good opportunity for both institutions to seize.

The first stage of the agreement will be implemented by the Faculty of Business and Economics, the Faculty of Law and Public Administration, and the Institute of Women's Studies. At a later stage, other faculties, institutes, and centers will be included.
